Remembrance Sunday

Today we remember especially all those members of the armed forces who gave their lives for others in the two World Wars and in other conflicts. We pray also for all victims of war, including the dead, the wounded, the bereaved, and refugees who have had to leave their homes because of war. Today, we pray also for peace in the world, for an increase of understanding between nations and peoples, and for those who work for peace.

November Dead List: Papers for the November Dead List are available in the hall, and completed lists and offerings can be placed in the box near the altar. The 12.15 Mass every day during November and the 6.00 Mass every Tuesday throughout the year is offered for those on our November Dead List.

Book of Remembrance: The Book of Remembrance is now open in the Church. Please feel welcome to write the names of your deceased family and friends in the book; others will read it and remember to pray for them.

Quiz Night: Saint Mungo's Young Adult Group invites you to a fund-raising Quiz Night in the Hall on Thursday of this week from 7.00 to 9.00 p.m. Tickets are available in the Bookshop; a donation of £5 per team (maximum team size is four!) goes to the Group's participation in the 2008 World Youth Day.

Marian Action Collection: Today (Sunday) there is a retiring collection for Marian Action, the group based at Saint Mungo's who work with homeless people in Glasgow. With Christmas approaching, please give a thought to those who will be homeless this winter. The group has always had a very generous response in the past; they are confident that they can count on your generosity once again.

Monthly Meetings: There will be a Readers Meeting on Monday of this week at 7.00 p.m. and a meeting of Extraordinary Ministers of Holy Communion on Tuesday at 7.00 p.m.
