The Forty Hours Adoration begins today here in Saint Mungo's.

Forty Hours Adoration

The Forty Hours Adoration begins in Saint Mungo's today (Sunday) at the 12.00 Mass. This is a special opportunity for each of us to spend some time in prayer and adoration before Jesus in the Eucharist. Try to set aside a quiet half-hour of personal prayer in the church during the Forty Hours Adoration.

Programme for the Forty Hours: The Forty Hours Adoration begins with the 12.00 Mass which is followed by a Eucharistic Procession. The Church will remain open all day for adoration. There will be a Holy Hour this afternoon at 4.00, after which adoration will continue until the 7.00 p.m. Mass. On Monday and Tuesday, adoration will resume after the 10.00 a.m. Mass and continue until the Holy Hour at 7.30 p.m.

Candles and Flowers: If you wish to have a candle burned for your or your family's intentions, or to make an offering towards the cost of candles and flowers, you can do so at the table at the church door.

Sign up for 40 Hours: If you can spend a half hour in Eucharistic Adoration during the Forty Hours (on Sunday, Monday or Tuesday), please sign the form at the back of the Church. In this way we can make sure that there is always someone praying in the church during the Forty Hours.

Catholic Calendar: The 2007 edition of the Western Catholic Calendar is on sale in the Bookshop (£2.80).

Understanding the Catholic Faith: The Evangelium course on the Catholic Faith will recommence after its Christmas break on Wednesday of this week, 17 January. The sessions run from 7.30 to 9.30 p.m. (including, of course, a tea break) and take place in the Bottom Hall. The course book, which covers all twenty-five sessions, costs £7.95 and is available from the Bookshop, or in the Hall during the course. This is a wonderful opportunity to understand the Faith of the Church from an adult point of view. Why not come along?
