Today is the Thirty-second Sunday in Ordinary Time

The Second Collection today is for the Assisted Parishes Scheme

Forty Hours Adoration begins today in Saint John Duns Scotus (Gorbals) and Saint Joseph's (Faifley)

Remembrance Sunday

Today we remember all those members of the armed forces who gave their lives for others in the two World Wars and in other conflicts. We pray also for all victims of war, including the dead, the wounded, the bereaved, and refugees who have had to leave their homes because of war. Today, we pray also for peace in the world, for an increase of understanding between nations and peoples, and for those who work for peace.

November Dead List: Papers for the November Dead List are available in the church, and completed lists and offerings can be placed in the box near the altar. The 12.15 Mass every day during November and the 6.00 Mass every Tuesday throughout the year is offered for those on our November Dead List.

Book of Remembrance: The Book of Remembrance is now open in the Church. Please feel welcome to write the names of your own deceased family and friends in the book; others will read it and remember to pray for them too. The Book of Remembrance will remain in the Church throughout November.

Monthly Youth Mass: Saint Mungo's Young Adult Group invites other young adults to the Monthly Mass for Young People today (Sunday) at 7.00 p.m. The Mass will be followed by Pizza in the Middle Hall.

Saint Andrew's Night Ceilidh: There will be a Family Ceilidh Night in the Middle Hall on Friday, 30 November from 7.30 to 10.00 p.m. Tickets are available from the bookshop. Tickets cost £3 for an adult, £2 for a child or £8 for a family ticket (two adults and two children).

Monthly Meetings: The next Readers' meeting will be on Monday, 12 November at 7.30 p.m. in St Mungo's Retreat; the next meeting of Extraordinary Ministers of Holy Communion will be on Tuesday, 13 November.

Saint Charles of Mount Argus: The new edition of To Heal the Broken Hearted, a life of Saint Charles of Mount Argus written by Father Paul Francis, is now on sale in the bookshop. It costs £9.50.

Parish Council Meeting will be on Monday, 19 November at 8.00 p.m. (Note change of date and time.)

R.C.I.A. – Journey of Faith: This group meets on Thursday evenings at 7.30 in Saint Mungo's Retreat. The group exists to help adults who wish to prepare to be baptised or confirmed or to become Catholics. There is also a French-speaking R.C.I.A. Group (Catéchumenat). For more information, speak to Father Paul Francis.

Saint Mungo's Day Centre: The Day Centre's Christmas Fayre will be on Wednesday, 14 November from 10.30 a.m. in the Bottom Hall. Why not come along and buy your Christmas paper, cards, etc.?

Marian Action Collection: Next Sunday there will be a retiring collection for Marian Action, the group based at Saint Mungo's who work with homeless people in Glasgow. With Christmas approaching, please give a thought to those who will be homeless this winter. The group has always had a very generous response in the past; they are confident that they can count on your generosity once again.

High Street Post Office will close early next year unless enough support is be found to keep it open. To have your say, write to Sally Buchanan, Network Development Manager, National Consultation Team, FREEPOST Consultation or email consultation@postoffice.co.uk or call 08457 223 344 before 3 December..

Saint Aloysius College: Open Evening on Thursday, 15 November at 7.00 p.m. St Aloysius' College is a Catholic school for boys and girls, aged 3 – 18. The College has a long tradition of offering bursaries to children entering the Senior School. It is important to the ethos of the College that it is open to pupils who might benefit from the education it provides regardless of the ability of the parents to pay the fees. Please contact the College on 0141.332.3190 or 0141.331.9259 for further details, or go to www.stalloysius.org

Urgent Help Requested – Oppose New Experimentation on Human Embryos: (from SPUC) Members of the House of Lords are due to vote on Monday, 19 November on a bill to widen the scope for embryo experiments and IVF. This bill includes all sorts of unethical proposals, such as extending the use of embryos in experiments, and permitting the creation of human-animal hybrid embryos for research. Please write and urge Lords now to oppose this bill as strongly as possible. SPUC has produced a flyer listing members of the House of Lords and some key points to make. This flyer is available at the church door.
