Today is the Third Sunday of the Year B

The Second Collection today is for the Assisted Parishes Fund

Will You follow Me?

Have you ever heard that question. What was your answer. YES or NO

Today, we hear how Jesus calls others to follow him, people just like ourselves. They are being asked if they are willing to do the work of Jesus. Many people will say yes and then not do what they say they will. But we who really want to be like Jesus will always try to do what he would want especially when we share the message of God's love. Yes, Jesus has given us not only the Word, but also his life to guide us as we go about our everyday lives showing people how much God loves them and wants them to be happy. We do this by our friendship and our concern for others. By the way we look after the sick and the older people. By the way we protect and look after the children. And by the way we spend time with God in prayer. And it is important that we remember to pray each day, building up our relationship with God, so that we can also build up his relationship with the people of this world. Perhaps our motto today could be 'Build bridges of love and peace, not barriers to happiness between God and his people.'

Fr. Michael Doogan C.P. next Sunday, we will celebrate a Mass to pray for the repose of the soul of Fr. Michael who died in Ireland on 15th December. Many people who have come to here over the years will remember Fr. Michael during his years of ministry in St. Mungo's. The Mass will be celebrated at 7.00p.m. in the Church, followed by a cup of tea in the hall. As many people were unable to be in Ireland for the funeral, this will give us all an opportunity to say farewell to a Priest who did so much to develop the Parish during his time here.

God Squad: for the children who are preparing for the Sacrament of Reconciliation will begin this Tuesday 27th January from 3.15p.m. until 4.30p.m. and on Saturday 31st January from 10.30a.m. until 11.30a.m. By now, parents should have had a letter regarding the dates and times for the God Squad and Sr. Edith and her team look forward to welcoming the children to the hall.

Enrolment for the Sacrament of reconciliation will take place on Sunday 8th February at the 12 noon Mass. We would expect that parents will bring the children to this Mass to enable us as a parish to accept those who are preparing for the Sacraments.

Baptism: Would parents of the children preparing for the sacrament of Reconciliation please contact Fr. James Andrew as soon as possible if their child has not already been Baptised.
