Today is the Fifth Sunday of Lent - Year B

The Second Collection today is for the Sick and Retired Priests of the Archdiocese

Lent – The Road seems long

Today on this Fifth Sunday in Lent it may seem that the road is long but be patient and have courage we are almost there. Yes, we have been journeying along this road with Jesus and in one more week, we will enter into that special time – Holy Week.

We may have not been able to keep all the promises we made way back at Ash Wednesday, but it is never too late to start again. Take time this week to realise that the Lord is calling each one of us to come closer to Him through our prayers and good actions. Take time to reach out to those in need and offer the love of the Lord to them. Walk in the footsteps of the Lord and dare to dream of the beauty of a world without violence or oppression. No injustice and a respect for all life. Take time to believe and you will make a difference in the world in which you live.

Month's Mind : this Sunday 29th March we will celebrate a Month's mind Mass for the repose of the soul of Sr. Vincent C.P. Since many people who would have liked to attend the funeral were not able to do so because of the travel involved, this will give us an opportunity to pray for Sr. Vincent who ministered here in St. Mungo's. This will take place at the 12noon Mass, followed by a cup of tea in the Hall.

Next Weekend we begin our celebrations of Holy Week with the blessing of Palms at the beginning of the Vigil Mass on Saturday. Then on Sunday beginning at 11.50a.m. in the School Car Park we will have our Procession to the Church.

French Mass will take place next Sunday 5th April at 3.00p.m. in the Church.

World Youth Day: takes place in the local parishes next Sunday. The theme for this year is 'We have set our hope on the living God.'

Problem Hair? Not any more. Why not take the opportunity to have your hair expertly cut and blow dried here in our hall this Wednesday from 9.00a.m. – 5.00p.m.? All the proceeds will go to help the work of SIR in providing 'Mary's Meals' for children throughout the world.

Gads envelopes for this year are now available at the back of the Church for collection. Perhaps you pay income tax and have not thought about helping the Church by using this scheme? If you would like information, please speak to Fr James Andrew or those who are helping with the envelope distribution.

Marian Action are looking for people willing to help them in their ministry of organising social events in some of the city's hostels for the homeless. If you are interested, please contact either John 558 9264 or Agnes 772 8008, or e-mail mcconville2005@fiscali.co.uk
